

AMII BARNARD-BAHN, JD, PCC

EXECUTIVE COACH AND CONSULTANT

---

EXPERIENCE/BACKGROUND

A former Fortune 5 executive, Amii Barnard-Bahn is a C-suite coach, consultant, professional speaker, and bestselling author who specializes in accelerating the success of corporate executives and their teams.

Amii works with great leaders who want to take charge of their future, achieve goals, and close the gap between where they are and where they want to be. She helps leaders new to the C-Suite; CEO transitions and succession; leaders who are driven to change ineffective leadership behaviors; those who need to build, scale, and develop their teams; who are leading during times of change or ambiguity; or who desire greater executive presence and increased organizational influence.

Prior to establishing her consultancy, Amii shaped company culture and strategy at global companies such as McKesson and Allianz in multiple roles (CAO, Chief Compliance Officer, and Chief Human Resources Officer). She brings this wealth of “in the trenches” experience in service to her clients, understanding the challenges today’s leaders face on a daily basis.

Ranked the #1 Global Thought Leader for Careers, Amii is a contributor to Harvard Business Review, Fast Company, and Compliance Week. She is a member of Marshall Goldsmith’s 100 Coaches and guest lectures at UC Berkeley Haas, Stanford, Tufts, and Georgetown.

CLIENTS

Representative clients include AbbVie, Adobe, Bank of the West, FedEx, The Gap, Lyft, Gilead, Nutanix, Whirlpool, Boehringer-Ingelheim, WEX, Paradigm Talent Agency, Verisk, Financial Times.

EDUCATION AND COACHING CREDENTIALS

Amii earned her law degree from Georgetown University and her BA from Tufts. She is a Fellow at the Harvard Institute of Coaching and a Professional Certified Coach (PCC). She serves on the Board of Trustees of Mary Baldwin University and West Edge Opera.
